The Locals play the Covington Percials, one of the strongest teams in that ection, this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon, and it is due the hoys that our citizens turn out en masse and give them a rousing welcome.

The Maysville Bali Club arrived home yesterday afternoon on the 1:36 C. and O. train as tired a set of genteel ball players as ever stepped off a train.

Ton Lengen scribe last evening severa of the players told how they were treated in the "land of flowers," especially on the ball field.

The first game they fairly routed the 'Indians' -outclassed them at all points The second game the compliment was returned. That was the only game the Knoxvlile plugs were entitled to—all the rest belonged to Maysville.

The umpires—save Dcnny—were all Jonahs of the worst sort. They were try-ing to win a reputation for the Knoxville club by giving Maysville—the best ama-teur club ever organized—the hot end of the decisions.

There were hits upon top of hits made by the Maysville boys that were never credited at all, and when one of the "Indlans" would roll one down to any par of the infield and the fleider would fum ble the ball and the batter get life at first, they would give the fielder an error and the batter a hit. That's just a sample of

If those people at Knoxville really think their club can heat the Locals, why don't they make arrangements to come up here and play a series of games in our large
